

Final CRC Check-List for Springer Conference Papers

S. No.	CRC Compliance Checklist
(1)	Corresponding Author is indicated (Marked with *) and respective email id is listed. The same corresponding author has signed the copyright form.
(2)	Abstract should not contain irrelevant and non-connected words and phrases. There are no sub-headings in abstract.
(3)	3-5 Keywords are listed after abstract.
(4)	All figures are sequentially numbered with Fig. No.
(5)	All tables are sequentially numbered with Table No.
(6)	All tables are cited in text at least once.
(7)	All figures are cited in text at least once.
(8)	Each of the figure is of significantly good resolution. If the figure contains text, it should be clearly readable.
(9)	Tables should not be in image form; they should be editable.
(10)	Mathematical equations should not be in image form; they should be editable.
(11)	Mathematical equations are sequentially numbered with Eq. No.
(12)	Mathematical equations are cited in text at least once.
(13)	All listed references are cited in text.
(14)	References should be complete in form with all publication details and not just weblinks.
(15)	Text in the table is not merged in between the sentences.
(16)	Paper is in single column format.
(17)	No author biographies at the end of the paper.
(18)	Have quick check of the language of the paper to assess if the language is 'OK' or sub-standard.
(19)	Run a quick google check of the title and or abstract of the paper to verify if the paper has been already published by same author(s) elsewhere.
(20)	Verify the exact correctness of paper title in PDF and DOC version of the CRC. There must be no minor deviation in title, sequence of authors, authors name and affiliation, email ids etc. This should be exactly same as in Copyright form.
(21)	There should not be any hidden text or unwanted special characters in source file (CRC).
(22)	The latex folder comprises of all files of figures, tables, etc. long with text file.